To the Seniors of 1958-1959

Do you remember that first day of school in '49, when we strutted up to the "little red schoolhouse," feeling like a "million dollars" because we were now "grown-ups" and going to school?

Among the group that day were: Paul Pack, David Curry, Karen Townsend, Ronnie Meyers, John Patman, Jack Knierl, Sandra Bauman, Paul Meyers, Nicholas Sullivan, Kristine Olson, Frances Pearson, Lady Kennedy, Terry Brewer, Ruth Peterson, Arlon Sherman, Alton Eddings, Richards Bahn, and myself, Madonna McCuen. Mrs. Pack was our teacher for both kindergarten and first grade. (Don't you remember the crash Paul P. and I had at this time?)

In the first grade, Wesley Anderson, Jackie Wilton, and Rosalie Stevens joined us. It was this year that Paul Pack was accidentally shot, and was disabled for some time. (You'll later add those faces Wesley Anderson and Jackie, especially for Jackie.)

Mrs. Peterson was our teacher for second and third grades. During our second grade, Jackie Wilton, and Rosalie Stevens left the class.

In the third grade, Geraldine Willett, Larry Hattig, and Doris Peterson joined the class. Arlon Sherman left. (Do you remember when Kristine Olson played a tooth-in-swing and fainted?)

Heading onward "on the steps of knowledge," we gained Ed Lorenz and Dick Enders in the fourth grade. Alton Eddings left as we went. We had Mr. Hattig, Richard Ross, and Larry Hattig also left. Mrs. Taplett was our teacher then.

When in the fifth grade, Ronnie Layton, Katherine Meyers, and Warren Lydson joined the class. Ronnie Meyers left as we went to the West Coast. Lady Eddings also left. Miss McDenhall was our teacher for the fifth and the sixth grades.

In the sixth grade, Leroy Campbell, Gretchen Jones, and Ronald Goergen were added to our "quad." Paul Pack attended school at Wamego this year but left for the next year.

In the seventh grade, we presented that Mrs. James Probert N.Y.C. There NEVER was anything like it. (and there never will be, probably, right?) Warren Lydson left the class this year.

AWAY, THEN WE TRAVELLED. Kristine Olson and Doris Peterson left the eighth grade and Gretchen Jones left.

Then came the BIG EVENT of entering high school. Remember how we felt that first day when we were at "high school"? We felt like "the ants that are at the end of the line." We were shaking like leaves, fearing what initiation would be like, etc.

Gary Peterson, Gary Fox, Don Sherman, Gary Everett, Ed Meyer, Ed McKay, and Robert Thompson, Gary Stark, and Eugene Kruse joined us as freshmen. Gary Stark was killed in a severe automobile wreck. Lady Kennedy left as we went to Colorado. Mr. Johnson was our class sponsor as Freshmen.

We added Dave Miller and Robert Lorenz to our class last year and Sophomore year. We lost Don Sherman and Ed McKay somewhere along the way. Sandra Bauman left for California. David Meyer, the coach, was our Sophomore sponsor.

Now, we were coming closer to the "end of the road," just two years left. We lost Dave Miller, Robert Lorenz, Paul Meyers, Terry Brewer, Leroy Campbell, Geraldine Willett, Wesley Anderson, and Ronald Goergen sometime during or at the end of our Junior year. We added Elmer Ketterman to our "crew."

Don't you remember that SPECTACULAR Junior Class Play, "The Real McCoy"? Mr. Schake sponsored the play. OH YEA, And don't forget the banquet and prom. Remember all the fun we had getting prepared for it?

Then, today that year arrived. We came to the end of that stretch of studying, tests, etc., in high school, anyway. We gained one boy, Eddie Patten, which made our class eighteen. We prepared for our graduation and then, it is all through. Each goes on his own way "into the "hows and hows" of life, maybe never to all meet again. We have completed our twelve years of education together, now, it is up to us. Let us each go out and be a SUCCESS!

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1959

Early in the summer of 1980 I took off a few weeks from my job to take a trip around the Universe. I loaded a rocket from the Pine Goose Lane at Ponca. As I went floating out into space I found that my pilot was none other than Paul Buck whose ability to drive at fast speeds had helped him land this job.

My first stop was the planet Mercury. The day I landed I went to the beach for a swim and to get a suntan, but within a few minutes I had myself scorched. While looking for a place to buy some lotion to put on my skin, I saw the life guard who turned out to be Karen Towne, a former classmate from PHS. Karen and I talked for an hour or so about our high school years. I was telling Karen about Paul being a pilot of a rocket when she remarked that she knew he'd get up in the world someday. Then she told me I've Curtis was fighting that night for boxing championship at Mercury. I went to see the fight, but it was by a knockout.

The following day my rocket took off for Venus. As my rocket went floating through space I saw a construction project being erected. They were building a skyscraper to a high tower for all the planets. To my surprise the engineer of the job was Gary Fox. The rocket stopped a few miles before at a fly-in restaurant. As the "rocket hop" came to serve me I noticed something very familiar about her. Striking up a conversation with her, I found she was a former PHS classmate, Doris Fitzgerald. Doris said she was the mother and the mother of a little boy. She also told me that her husband owned the "fly-in restaurant".

Late the next day the rocket landed at Venus. As I drove through the streets of the big city I saw in bright lights, "floating in space" "Paul's place". The name ring a bell, so I went in to see if my intuition was right. It was Gary Fox, who had called last year for the head cook, Kristine Olson, both former classmates of mine. Paul had invited that I stay for supper and taste Kris's good fried steak.

Being invited to our residence the rocket landed off the same eve. Mr. Mars' place is noted for its large horses and beautiful horses, so I went to see one of the largest farms. The owner, much to my surprise, was Gary Fox. Gary said that he'd come to Venus after he graduated from college to start farming. I asked him where he had seen some of the beautiful horses that were Mars' noted. Imagine my surprise when the answer was none other than Bob Lamproot. I asked him how he had the time to work on all these beautiful horses.

The next morning good times were had and I continued my journey around the Universe. I found out where and I located Maryann at Venus, president of the Venusian Women's Club. She had certainly reached her goal of being a Venusian. I was surprised to find she was married to the same old Paul. Paul brought me home a Venusian note. I read what it said and sure enough it was Paul's letter who was now an all basketball player for the Venusian Basketball Team.

Next stop, Jupiter. I stopped at the "Jupiter Inn" for a night. While eating my dinner I heard the sound of music singing over TV. I was surprised to find the singer was the girl that had been singing was Linda, a former classmate from PHS. Linda's husband, I remembered to my surprise, had a job for the night. After a good night's sleep I had my car washed and called for the bell hop. To my surprise the bell hop was Jim Allen.

On Uranus Kathy Stevens was secretary for a large company. Frances Peterson was married to the mayor and her daughter was Miss Universe of Venus.

I had Kathy Stevens and Frances Peterson with me. Our rocket engine developed trouble and we had to land on Pluto for repairs. The weather on Pluto was very bad and while the mechanics came in to work on the engine I realized it was not I but my brother, Paul, who had to put apart things and put them back together successfully. I ended up by getting this job.

Rocket repaired we took off. Picking up the PHS classmate, I found out about the famous scientist, Nicholas Sullivan, who had just won the Pulitzer prize for inventing a robot that could run the farm machinery with the push of a button.

Wearied from my long journey around the Universe I was glad when my trip was over, but it was worth the time for I had seen all my old classmates from Ponca High School.

CLASS POEM

As I look down from the sky,
My gaze falls on Ponca High.
'Twill never be a class so fine,
As the class of '59.

Gary Fluent is kinda thin,
But its fun to be with him.

Gary Fox is a football star,
When with Kathy he's up to par.

Kathy Sievers has curly locks,
Her steady beau is Gary Fox.

Bob Lamprecht although short and small,
Will be the best farmer of them all.

Our Tarzan boy is John Putman,
The idol of each football fan.

Garry Bauman is kinda stout,
But where he is there is joy about.

A fellow never in a hurry,
Goes by the name of David Curry.

Janelle Krause comes from the farm,
And she's full of school girl charm.

Kris Olson is studying hard this year,
To make business her career.

Frannie Pearson eyes of brown,
Seldom ever wears a frown.

Madonna McCuen is a brain,
To be a secretary she will train.

Doris Bergerson our beautician to be,
Will be a good one, just you wait and see.

Jim Allen's intentions for the future are,
To marry Connie and travel far.

Nicholas Sullivan with his quiet way,
Will be a farmer some fine day.

Ed Pittenger came to Ponca in the fall,
And now he's playing basketball.

Paul Pack and his car are always together,
You'll see them about in any weather.

Karen Townsend gets in the car,
She goes real fast and travels far.
